About Trinity Energy Resources, Inc.

Trinity Energy Resources, Inc. ("Trinity," or the "Company") was originally incorporated in Utah in 1986 as Celebrity Limousines, Ltd. In 1989, the Company was redomiciled in Nevada as Limousines Limited but in November 1990, ceased operations. In July 1993, Sidney W. Sers exchanged certain oil and gas assets from his wholly owned Texas Corporation for 18,275,036 shares and control of Limousines Limited. He changed the corporate name to Trinity Gas Corporation and oversaw the oil and gas operations until early 1998, when he abruptly resigned and fled the country in the wake of accusations of fraud, mismanagement and other charges. In March 1999 the shareholders approved a change in the name of the Company to "Trinity Energy Resources, Inc." In December 1997, the Company filed a petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the Federal Bankruptcy laws in the United States Bankruptcy court for the Northern District of Texas. In February 1998 the Bankruptcy Court appointed the Official Committee of Equity holders of Trinity Gas Corporation. Mr. Dennis Hedke, the Company's current President, was appointed Chairman of the Committee.
